China Yuchai Announces Issuance of Second Tranche of Short Term Financing Bonds by its Key Subsidiary

Singapore, Singapore – July 22, 2011 – China Yuchai International Limited (NYSE: CYD) (“China Yuchai” or the “Company”) announced today that further to its announcement on March 10, 2011, its key subsidiary, Guangxi Yuchai Machinery Company Limited (“GYMCL”) will be issuing the second tranche of its RMB-denominated unsecured short-term financing bonds (“Bonds”) amounting to RMB 700 million on July 22, 2011. The second tranche of the Bonds will mature on July 22, 2012. GYMCL issued the first tranche of the Bonds amounting to RMB 1 billion on March 9, 2011. The par value and issue price of each Bond is RMB 100.

The second tranche of the Bonds will bear a fixed annual interest rate of 5.65%. Subscription to and trading of the Bonds is only available in China to institutional investors of China’s National Inter-bank Bond Market. The lead underwriter and bookrunner for the second tranche of the Bonds is the Industrial and Commercial Bank of China. All the proceeds from the issuance of the Bonds are to be used by GYMCL as working capital. It is believed that in view of the continued increases in lending interest rates by the People’s Bank of China to counter rising inflation, the Bonds issue will lower GYMCL’s financial costs.

This press release does not constitute an offer of securities for sale in the United States, and securities may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration. The Company does not intend to register any portion of the Bonds issue referred to above in the United States or to conduct a public offering in the United States. Any public offering of securities to be made in the United States will be by means of a prospectus that can be obtained from the Company and that will contain detailed information about the Company and management, as well as financial statements.
